LOS ANGELES – Mayor Villaraigosa announced today that he will nominate Christina Noonan, a respected commercial real estate executive and businesswoman, to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners.

“With her extensive business and strategic experience, Christina Noonan will bring a unique perspective to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners,” said Mayor Villaraigosa. “Drawing from her corporate experiences, she will help transform the DWP into a more efficient, transparent, and business-friendly organization that makes smart decisions on behalf of the City and ratepayers.”

Ms. Noonan brings over 14 years of business experience to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners. As Senior Vice President of Jones Lang LaSalle’s Los Angeles office, she develops strategic real estate solutions for clients and advises clients on the best strategies for their purposes. Over the course of her career, she has successfully negotiated more than $200 million of building leases.

"I am honored to have been chosen to join the Board of Water and Power Commissioners at this critical junction in the DWP's history," said Ms. Noonan. "I look forward to furthering the Mayor's efforts to modernize and reform the nation's largest municipally-owned utility."

Reforming the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power to make it more effective, accountable, and transparent to its ratepayers is one of Mayor Villaraigosa's top priorities.
